“ More than anyone else, Mrs. Heller taught me how to approach the Scriptures with both faith and reason. I attribute much of my academic success at Moody to her faithful work as my high school Sunday School teacher. She was an incredibly wise women.

“ I met Joan just once when she came to Huntington a few years ago to visit Jack. I was dropping off something at the house. Jack wasn't there at the moment, so I stood and chatted with her for a good fifteen minutes about all kinds of things, from the soggy gray Indiana spring to bread baking to life in New Orleans. When I said goodbye, I had a clearer understanding of where Jack got his southern charm!

“ My sincerest condolences to your family. We all have fond memories of our beloved sister, mine (Chris Dutreix) are below.

In John's gospel the 4th chapter, (Samaritan woman account) our Lord spoke to his disciples the following:

Joh 4:35 Do you not say, It is yet four months, and the harvest comes? Behold, I say to you, Lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are white to harvest already. 36 And he who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit to life eternal, so that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together.

This is how I will remember my sister in the Lord, she was a "reaper" for Him and is now rejoicing as He promised in His actual presence.

May the Lord bless you and keep you in your time of sorrow and grief at her passing, but lets not forget that Joan believed as Martha did in John's gospel the 11th chapter:

Joh 11:25 Jesus said to her, I am the Resurrection and the Life! He who believes in Me, though he die, yet he shall live. 26 And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this? 27 She said to Him, Yes, Lord, I have believed that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who has come into the world.

And since I believe this also, I know that I will again see my sister in the Lord when my earthy journey has ended as well.

Your brother in Christ,

Chris Dutreix
