“ I met Joan when Angie and I became friends in junior high school. I remember how beautiful she was, and strong. It took her a while to I love me, but I eventually convinced her that her daughter's heart was safe in my hands. She was strong willed and I respected her for that. She loved her kids, and adored her grandkids and great grandkids. I'll always remember her beautiful face and that gorgeous red hair. You'll be missed Joan King.
