“ Luellen and I were very sad to hear of John's departure and want to pass on to all the family our love and condolences. I particularly remember the kindness and love shown to me from both 'Pops & Mops' (that's how I knew them as) during my time in New Orleans. I especially remember when faced with being illegal in the US because my visa had long since expired that 'Pops' was looking into a plan to adopt me into the Bertucci family. It never came to that but I was astounded and touched by the love and hospitality of the family and as a result have always felt very close to them all in spirit and love. I also remember how honourable John was when he parted company with his old church, setting such a wonderful example to all Christians. I wish I had made the time to tell him how much he had meant to me and the example he set. His passing will be a huge loss I'm sure, though heaven will be the richer if that was ever possible. Love especially to my VWOG friend Anne. God bless you all, Richard Mayhew xxx

“ I remember how John loved Jesus and had a heart for the poor. He used to minister and do Chapel Services at the New Orleans Mission. He faithfully served God and also served his fellow man. He loved Jesus and also loved people. His kindness touched everyone he met. We will all miss him, but will cherish the wonderful memories of our time together.

“ John played a special role in the life of our family. He was always ready to answer questions at Bible study, pray and encourage us when times were difficult, and to be an awesome man of God to help show us the way. Much of our foundation came from John's words and teachings.

We send our love and prayers to Pat, the children and grandchildren. We know the Holy Spirit will be at your sides to comfort each of you with His love in the days ahead.

“ Soooo sorry John and Noel to hear of your dads passing. Seems like that's happening more often these days. I guess it's our age and our time. I have wonderful memories with the Bertucci family and The Vinyard Church. At one time your family and mine pretty well took up a lot of the Church. Much love and prayers to all. Love Amelia, Jerry and the whole Cannon Family. 💕💕💕🙏🙏🙏

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to each member of the family & all friends who will dearly miss John. I will always be so very grateful to John & Pat for coming to my home so immediately when my husband, Curt, passed on to glory. Your ministry came at such a needed & vulnerable time. This was who he was & how he served. I so regret that I cannot be at the service. My heart goes out to you. God bless you 💕
