

John Samuel Crespino

February 20, 1940 - June 20, 2021

John Samuel Crespino, 81, passed away peacefully at his home on Sunday, June 20, 2021 with his family by his side. A native of New Orleans and a resident of Metairie for the past 52 years, John was a devoted husband, father and grandfather. He served in the Louisiana Army Reserve and was the owner/operator of Mid-City Acceptance Corporation for over 25 years. He enjoyed playing tennis at Lakeside Country Club, a round of golf with his friends, and a game of gin rummy. He was an avid sports fan, playing both baseball and basketball in high school, and was a little league coach and umpire when his children were young. John will be remembered for his wonderful sense of humor, and how he put everyone he met at ease with his quick wit and quirky one-line sayings.

John is survived by his beloved wife of 56 years, Jacqueline Markey Crespino and his three children, Stacy Crespino Virgets, John William Crespino and Ryan Michael Crespino (Shannon). He is the son of the late Camille DiFatta Crespino and John Paul Crespino and brother of the late Joyce Crespino Palermo. He is also survived by his three granddaughters, Emily Virgets, Lynsey and Lauren Crespino, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Our family would like to acknowledge the care given to John by Heart of Hospice, Dr. Jayne Gurtler, Dr. Paul Monsour and their staffs.
