“ I remember John when my family lived in New Orleans. Our parents saw each other frequently, and John's parents were witnesses when my parents had their marriage blessed in the Church. My family moved around a lot, and my husband and I later did the same, so our time with John and his family became rare. But I'll always remember the fun we had together when we were kids and then when we'd see each other at family gatherings and funerals. My connection with him will always be special, because he was such a wonderful person, kind and gentle. I know his family is hurting right now, and my heart goes out to them. "While we are mourning the loss of our friend, others are rejoicing to meet him behind the veil."
