“ Johnny, It's been over a month since you've been gone. Please pray for me. This isn't getting any easier. I can not look at a pitcher of you without crying. I know you are in a great place, but.... I hurt so bad. And I miss you so very much.... I will think of you every day as I do for Stevie, our little brother. Give him a big hug for me. I love you!

“ To the whole Jeanfreau family,

May you all find comfort in the beautiful memories you all have of Johnny. He was a strong man who has finally found peace in the arms of our Lord. He has been reunited with his son, and although difficult for all who love him on earth, it is a wonderful reunion for him.

May God give you all strength, peace, and comfort. Everyone is in my thoughts and prayers. If any of you need anything, don't hesitate to ask.

*All my love,
Cathy*

“ Dear Johnny:
I remember attending your wedding. I remember the room in the back of Loyola Drive, the walls covered with Disney cartoon characters drawn with your talented hand. I remember the accident, and watched how grief can twist a soul. I remember Jenn and I taking you to Pontchartrain Beach, and marvelling how you could point to out the location of every lost ride, after all you had been through. It is my sincerest wish that after all that you suffered, that you are finally at peace, reunited finally with the rest of the family that has waited so long to see you again. Know that you were much loved here by the family you left behind, and watch over us until we meet again.

“ We feel so sorry, for ourselves, but, must have to feel happy for Johnny. He's with God now. Jen your words said it so perfectly. He's also with his son. You are so right, in fact, that he could do it all. Whenever we needed him, our electrician showed up. And always with a smile on his face! We should all feel good, that, we have another Angel on our shoulder. Our prayers are with your family.

“ Johnny,
You truly are an inspiration to all who knew you. You were an athlete, a hunter, a fisherman, an artist, a craftsman, a photographer, an electrician, a carpenter, a gardener, a painter, a son, a brother, a father and most of all a fighter. You fought till the very end. You beat all the odds. God answered our prayers and gave us an additional 21 years with you then another 25 days. You lived your mission God set out for you and lived a good hard life. I know you are the happiest you have ever been now that you are with your son. That makes me so happy. You will forever be loved and deeply missed!! I do love you!
Your sister,
Jennifer

“ I met Johnny at Wentwood Playground in 1971 and I treasure our years playing ball together, especially when we were teammates at Roosevelt Middle. I've coached for many years and to this day have not seen a stronger left arm than Johnny's. We were friends and for this I am Proud. My deepest and heartfelt condolences to the entire Jeanfreau family, and to everyone that knew Johnny. Thank You, Jesus for taking our friend into your everlasting rest.

There are certain soul's in this life that leave an impact on everyone that come in contact with them. Johnny Jeanfreau and I go way back when our hearts were young and spirits free. His mother and mine were special friends and Johnny, Juju, Robbie and Stevie were the only family that I ever had. The Jeanfreau family treated me like one of their own. The only Christmas that I ever had as a child came from the Jeanfreau family; Shirley, Charlie, and the boys filled my life with the only love that I can remember as a child. Especially Johnny. We were best friends. I was older but we shared everything. Everyone knew Johnny as my cousin but in my heart he was so much more. I left home when I was 16 because I couldn't stand it anymore. i lost contact with the Jeanfreau's. But out of sight does not mean out of mind. I grew up with Johnny and he was like my baby brother. He was the most natural athelete I've ever known. It was a joy to be with him. We used to laugh so hard we would cry. When I think of loving parents, family and brothers, I think of the Jeanfreau family. I am so sorry for your loss. I wish I had know earlier that he was ill. I just found out at 10:30 on 1-21-2012. I love you all. Love Gary Rogers

I was so sorry to hear about Johnny's passing. I spent most of my teenage life around Johnny before he became my brother in law in 1985. Even though I have not been able to see him in the last several years, I will ALWAYS have fond memories of the times we had with Johnny!! R.I.P. my friend.
