“ Dawn, Jeflyn and I are so very sorry that your Dad has passed. Although he's had a tough and difficult few years, it's not easy. He was a favorite of mine, and a mentor of workmanship and farther figure to me. He will be deeply missed. Know that our prayers for his soul and condolences for you and your family will continue.
Love and miss y'all.

“ I remember being happy whenever Uncle John would visit us as kids. He was always happy, smiling and making us laugh. I specifically remember a game we played at a family gathering that involved a broom. Uncle John tapped the broom randomly on nine pieces of paper on the floor and said something like If you can do this like I can do this then you don't have to sit on the floor. No one could figure out the solution and he just laughed and laughed that we couldn't figure it out. We were blessed to have him in our life and he will certainly be missed!

I remember that too, Missy! The trick was to clear your throat first, then you could touch the paper plates on the floor in any random order and be correct. But if you didn't clear your throat first, no matter what you did next, it would be wrong! Of course, everyone was focused on trying to tap the plates in the same order he did. I also remember watching MTV videos with him when they first came out. ZZ Top and John Cougar were the ones that stood out in my memory. And I'll never forget him singing "Jeremiah was a bullfrog..." He was so good-humored all the time! Sure gonna miss him!

I remember that game too! And spending many nights at your home on Generes! And something about him singing " My Malibu, but, bu, bu." Will always remember his great laugh!
