“ To our second family! Words fail me in expressing what Uncle Johnny means to me. He is one of my heros, an uncle, a friend whose voice rings in my mind and strength of character lives in my heart. He is a true friend to my parents and a force of the ages! I know he is dancing with our family in heaven and is watching over all of us as we finish our journeys here on earth! Ta Yolanda, Lizette, Elizabeth, Johnny and Mary...may the AMAZING memories of his inspiring and FULL life comfort you and bring you peace! he is with us in our hearts now and forever... Love, love, love! Maria, Scott, Gus, Magdalena, Ian and Kristiane

“ Tio Johnny... I can't believe you are gone. You were special and love by many. I wish I could've have seen you again and we could have gone to get those yummy "poboyos" like old times. You are in my heart forever.. Say hi to my Dad.

Tia Yoli, John and Lizette: please receive all my love during this hard time. Tio Johnny was exceptional and very loved.

Blessings.. Puki (Irma Page)

“ I extend my sorrow to Johnny's family. I had occasion to see Johnny at a local grocery recently and we had a laugh when we compared our heart surgeries. He seemed to be cheerful and had a great outlook. He enjoyed his life and loved his family. During the times that I visited with his family he was the life of the party and always made me feel at home and welcomed. He will be missed by all who knew him.
