“ Joe Cave, you were the easiest guy to play a prank on, and that I did on occasion, as you always thought I was Lisa when you called and I went with it, this memory will always be held within me and when I see your girl's heart wondering away so broken, I will remind her of those little pranks just to watch her smile if only for a brief moment. I pray for peace Joe and ask that you watch over your girl as well as your sister. from now until you meet each other again.

“ Lisa, our hearts go out to you and Joe's family.
You and Joe have been in our lives for 17 years and we are so saddened by his passing.

We have so many wonderful memories: Yogi's, Katz Lounge, Joe's singing & guitar playing, pool party @ Chic & Durinda's house, Hurricane Katrina: staying @ Kay & Gene's house in Keithville for 3 months together, Joe & Tonya always eating canned ravioli together, Joe sleeping outside with all our dogs while it snowed with blankets & hand warmers, Joe & Scott trying to get Gene's cow out from under a trailer, Joe & Scott chopping wood for the fireplace & then trying to get a fire going, all of us decorating & spending Christmas together, all of us spending Lisa's B-Day on Gene's Party Barge & than run out of gas, bathing/ cutting hair /loving all our animals together (even sneaking the dogs in the house when Kay & Gene were out of town), Joe & I drying all of our video tapes on the lawn after the flood, Joe giving me one of his guitar cases because mine was ruined in the flood, Joe singing in the shower every morning, Joe eating Dog Cookies by mistake but then he said they were good, Joe & Tonya always wanting to go to a Mexican Restaurant, Lisa trying to teach Joe how to shuffle a deck of cards, Lisa & Kay picking on Joe & he says "they can't eat me", Joe taking me to pick up Tonya from school because she was sick, Joe running down the street trying to lasso Star (Kay's horse) & then getting him back in the gate with Fruit Loops, making Fiesta Meatloaf for Joe when he came to visit us in Keithville about a year after the storm and he loved it, and we visit Joe & Lisa every year since we moved to Keithville permanently because we are all family.

*We will miss you Joe and love you so very much.
You are not just a memory,you are in our hearts forever...*

All Our Love, Kathi, Scott, and Tonya

P.S. Joe, when you get to Heaven please take care of Shelby for us,

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Joe. I'm deeply saddened by his passing. I've known Joe for 40 years - through playing softball and a client of LA Lift. Our best times were after the games, when the families would go for pizza and beer. Such a kind soul, gone too soon.

“ The first time I met Joe I have to say he was the nicest men I had met in long time.
That voice had something special that it always made us stop and listen.
When he belt out with some Joe Cocker I was in shock.
So when ever we went to karaoke and he was there that's all I wanted him to sing.
Lisa I am so sorry for your loss. 🙏🙏

The biggest heart and the most soul of any musician I ever played with. If there's a rock and soul heaven, he'll be the leader of that band. Dear Lisa, Karen and the many friends ,bandmates and coworkers who had the gracious opportunity of being in Joe's presence, we've all been blessed. Joe Cave was a great man. May he rest in peace by the grace of God. 🎸 Chris Lockette, Joes band mate forever.

Met Joe in 2013 and we became instant friends...music was our thing we would share stories about the days going to "The Warehouse" and city park stadium and all the bands we seen there...and going to warehouse records and tapes on a Friday night just to go through the albums. My heart is heavy been playing Joe Cocker, Leon Russel and Allman Brothers all week for you Joe....He was a good soul...RIP Joe.
