“ Mr. Joe was a quiet, gentle, and faith filled man. He was strong and trust worthy. When I was 18 years old he and Mrs Linda took me in to live with their family until I was married a few months later. My own family had moved away and I needed a place to stay. Lisa was my best friend- a sister to me, and I had a peaceful, safe place to live for the first time in many years..Over the years he blessed us with his love for Jesus, his stories of his dogs, the produce from his gardens, and an occasional lunch of beans. Such a content person! He took good care of his family and was a good example to all. I loved him and am so sorry I haven't seen him in such a long time since I moved away!

Thank you, Mrs Linda and Mr Joe for speaking into my life and being such wonderful "parents"!

“ Joe,

We wil always remember you being such a sweet, loving, and caring brother when we were growing up. As time passed, you remained the same! We will always remember the funny things you would say and do to make us laugh--like the time you brought "Billy" the goat into the house so that he could see his reflection in the mirror. He saw himself and just about destroyed the house getting out. Mama was so upset! Daddy just said calmly, "Joe, don't bring the goat in the house anymore."

You and the memories of you will remain in our hearts until we see you again.

We love you,

Your sisters, Pat and Joan
