Joe loved being around people. He loved to talk to everyone, weather it was at a crawfish boil or just the neighbors hanging out. He was in his element, his personality was loved and infectious. His only goal was to get smiles from everyone. Joe would give life advice to currant affairs, he was always up to talk about it.

We who knew him best will forever have a piece missing in our hearts.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date. Rest Easy!
