“ Joe was a member of the Sea Scouts Ship115, and loved the times spent on canoe trips in Florida, and tubing on local waterways. What was Joe's strongest personality trait was his loyalty and even tempered nature. We kept in touch throughout the years, and we had been playing a quiz game on-line weekly with other former members of the Sea Scouts. He was among my wife's favorites among the scouts because he looked after her floating down the river.(she was scared to death of water, and Joe was a natural in the water, a strong swimmer). I was proud to be called a friend by Joe, and he made a positive influence on our lives. He will surely be missed....

“ I hadn't seen Joe since I graduated from High School at John Curtis in 1974. He was a few years younger than me, but I remember when he joined the varsity football team as a freshman. It was also the beginning of the school year and Joe was mingling with the rest of the guys in the gym before practice introducing himself to a number of the other players. He would say his first and last names and always add, " but just call me Joe, for short". So of course the guys started calling him "Joe for short"! I remember him being a very friendly kid with an ever-present smile on his face. Sorry to see he's no longer with us.
