“ Joy and I were high school classmates. We also played volleyball and basketball on our school's team. She loved both sports and was a terrific athlete. At our last class reunion in 2019 she was waiting for her daughter to pick her up. She was on a scooter and needed chauffeuring. I was in no rush and spent the time with her. We had a delightful time catching up and reminiscing about our "glory days". She was always such a giving person even back then. That day she was giving ME way too many compliments, when she deserved so many more. She is so well remembered by our classmates and it was a a "real joy" to have spent my high school year with her.
