“ Joyce was a wonderful lady who genuinely cared about others. She was the rock of St. Jerome's parish for so many years and put her whole heart and soul into service there. It was a privilege to work with her. She was humble and able to teach others with great tact. The parish was blessed by her presence so many years.

“ I didn't know Mrs. Joyce well, but I know her beautiful daughters. Linda is one of my dearest friends. Linda has such a generous, loving heart. The kind of person who gives of her time to help with whatever she can. I'm sure Mrs. Joyce has the same loving spirit. So sorry for your loss.
