“ To Family member of Juanita.

Juanita was a dear dear friend, who I loved with all my heart. She will always be with me. I loved her. It was a shock to hear of her passing, but if anyone deserves to be in heaven she does. She gave all of her self. To her children I share your grief. Heaven has gained a new angel and she is resting in peace. She deserves this peace, she struggled and worked all her life, but never complained. She lived for her family, and I miss the fact that I did not get to see her. Soar high, you can now. This is so hard, she is the true meaning of a great mother and human being. I can't say enough about her goodness.

“ Ms. Cuccia.....Thanks for being one of the special angels in my life. I was a lucky girl to grow up across the street from you and witness your sweet spirit on this earth. I loved hearing you sing and whistle as you worked in your yard. You were different and I knew you had a special relationship with God. You helped awaken my young soul to spiritual things. Thanks very much for being the awesome lady you are and great example! I have matured spiritually now and realize I am a spiritual being having a physical experience and not the other way around! I know I will see you again thanks to the plan of salvation and glorious resurrection of Jesus Christ! You and your family have always been my family. May God Bless them all with strength, courage, faith, love, hope and the knowledge that you are very close by and watching over them until you can all be reunited on the other side of the veil. Thank you again for the love you showed me and your great testimony! You will be missed by so many!!!!

Mama J, your children were so blessed to have you as their Mother. I know you are now watching and loving all of your loved ones still, but now from Heaven. You were so easy to talk to. I remember we used to talk about our past lives and all that we went through when you used to watch your sweet Sayge Venezia during the Summer months. I will forever miss you and I will not forget you. The world will never be the same without you in it. I pray that your children will have your strength and courage to accept and face life without you; just as you had to do when you lost your parents. There was a reason Jesus sent you into my path of life. You were so easy to love too. Rest well, Sweet Mama J, for the best is yet to come in Heaven. Please ask Jesus to bless us all with health and peace of mind for many years to come. I will always love you.
