“ Ms Judy, I will miss that wonderful smile you would have every time you came through the door to get your haircut. You made me smile. I will miss your compassion for life. You lived each day to its fullest and never let anything stop you from doing what you wanted. Your love and friendship has been one of the best. I will dearly miss you my friend but I will see you again. Fly with the angels. RIP Judy

“ You lived life large with a passion for food, drink, and the Saints. Your sense of humor and unflappable personality in the face of life threatening adversity are an inspiration to not only me and Lisa, but I would imagine to any and all who were fortunate enough to have crossed paths with you during your far too shortened life. Your love for life will live on through those of us who remain here on earth. May God rest your soul.

“ I don't really have one memory that stands out, as my entire friendship with you is priceless and never to be forgotten. However, our final night on the cruise will always bring a smile to my face. You, Emily, Jackie and myself sitting on the balcony. Yes you and I had way to many cocktails to the point that you and I "thought" we saw aliens !!!! That was a wonderful vacation that Jackie and I will never forget. Thank you for being you; a kind, generous, fun loving person and friend to the end. Love and miss ya girlfriend!!!!

“ Judy, I don't even know where to begin. I just can't imagine life without you in it. You were such a joy to be around and always made my family feel happy to be around you. My favorite memories are dancing at Jackson Square like "nuts" to the street band and you coaching those Saints on to victory each Sunday under the car port. I will always love and miss you cuz.
