“ Together with Pat Lyons and Mary Landry, Judy was the heart and soul of our division at Lykes Bros. Steamship Co. for almost two decades. I don't believe any of the Port Engineers or others who worked with her would disagree and I know my father would have most heartily concurred.

Personally I can't remember a cross word or even a frown from Judy. Regardless of whatever personal trials or concerns occupied her, she was the most serene individual in my acquaintance, a constantly calming influence. My deepest sympathy goes out to her family. She will be sorely missed.

“ Judy was a treasure, always warm, kind, thoughtful and upbeat, a delightful niece whom I loved very much. She fought the good fight, and now her suffering has ended. My heart goes out to Amanda, Christy, and Doug, as you grieve the loss of your mother and wife. We will all miss Judy dearly and trust she is now resting in peace, enjoying her heavenly reward. Love you all, Aunt Cathy
