“ To Scott, Amanda, Phil, Jennifer, Phillip and all of Julia's niece/nephews (of whom she smiled so when she spoke their names). There comes to mind no words that might even remotely lessen the pain and grief of Julia's passing. Please know that my constant thoughts and prayers are with you all during this most difficult time. As hard as I try, I can't seem to conjure up one simple memory of Julia and I, good, bad, happy and/or sad. Instead, all I can do is want to pick up the phone and give her a call...go down and see if she wants to get outside and get fresh air...those kind of thoughts are continuously going round in my mind. Julia was such a unique individual; she was a giver, not a taker, she was always the calm in the midst of a storm, she was the one who seemed to know what you needed emotionally, physically and spiritually, no matter how lost/confused you were at the time. Julia gave and gave of herself to the point that when she needed, her tank was just about empty, yet what did she do? She would suck it up, look to her Lord for the strength and fortitude to press on, as she knew that others would be calling, coming soon...for their own needs to be addressed & solved. As her failing back and unrelenting pain took over once again, she stayed as strong as she could, giving in to surgeries, procedures, looking to and trusting that the medical professionals could get her back into "living without constant anguish". And of course she would always say "it is in the hands of the Lord". Well Julia, you have gone to meet your Lord, may your soul never be lost, your spirit remain filled with God's good graces, let your beautiful and infectious smile shine down upon your loved ones that they might feel the warmth of your joy now that you can finally feel no more tears rolling down your face, agony through constant pain or ever have fear again as to , "huh, wonder what's next". Just rest my friend, rest peacefully in the arms of He who loves you most. Much love...

P.S. Sorry I did not attend, as I have been in Tennessee since August 1, 2013. Please let me know if there is anything at all that I can do for the family or other.

“ I worked with Julia when she lived in North Carolina. I feel blessed to have met her and will always remember her smile and the positive way she handled everything in life. I will miss her. I know the loss feels enormous for the family, but I know God's peace will soon replace the sadness. I will keep her family and friends in my prayers.

Sincerely,

“ I feel so blessed to have known Julia. A light has gone out in the world. But Julia's love, faith, and joy-in-the-Lord will remain in our hearts and minds forever. She was a pillar of strength and a marvelous example of Christ's love. She will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.

“ I met Julia during a Real Estate transaction and she was pure delight and optimism. While I didn't know her very well, she invited me into her home, shared lots of very heartfelt insight with me. I pray for peace for Julia's family and friends knowing that she made an imprint on so many and whose spirit lives through all she touched.

“ Julia, Even though you are not here with us in the flesh, you will always be with us in spirit. I have reflected on our childhood memories over theses last few days, and it brings a HUGE smile to my face!! Rest in peace my friend. I love you always!!!

“ Julia! The memories I have of you are all sweet and happy ones. The last memory I have of us is when I came to visit you at your apartment. I remember walking in and you having that same smile you always had every time I saw you. Although you were in pain and going through so much you still insisted on reaching out to me and making sure I was ok. You always were like this, this is one of the many beautiful things about you, how selfless you were. That day we talked and prayed and I walked out feeling like I had been touched and uplifted by an angel, the way I always did after talking or spending time with you! You have made an impression in my heart forever, you have shown what a true woman of God should lead by and live by! You showed me to never give up no matter the struggle, to keep walking through until we come out shining on the other side. (We gonna shine like diamonds ya heard me!) ;) A song we sang together and will play on in my heart forever, with the picture of you laughing and smiling! Heaven has gained another sister and angel! R.I.P my beautiful sister, friend and mentor. You are in my heart forever and always!

“ My last memory is about 2years ago having lunch with you at Caffe Caffe we had a great time it was so good to see you we laughed at old stories about when we were kids and caught up with what was new. We would go a long time out of touch but the second we came across each other it was like we never skipped a beat. You are such a dear friend to me i loved everything about you Julia and I mourn your short life. God must have bigger plans for you to need you so soon. I can't blame him you are pretty awesome :) I love you and will never forget your kind heart and beautiful smile R.I.P. Jules xo <3 you

“ I never met you, but my good friend B and another friend were always talking about how you were such an inspiration to them. I often saw your comments on Facebook and always admired your brilliant smile in your profile pic. I knew you must be a good friend. You truly were a light to everyone around you and I know you will be missed so sorely. To the family and friends, please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers. She was truly beautiful and I can't imagine how difficult this must be for you all. Many prayers going up for you all.

“ Not many hearts can compare to yours Julia. Even on your wedding day you came to MY aid when my little girl got hurt, you zoomed over to my house without hesitating. I loved to hear your stories of what God was doing through you to touch other's lives while. And I will never forget the surprise birthday delivery you sent me one year. I love you and will never forget such a beautiful life lived.
