“ *Kitty, Ronnie and Scott, my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear son and brother Justin. He was kind, soft spoken, and always had a smile on his face. He liked to play his guitar, swim, skate boarding, but most all Fishing with his parents and brother. He loved his children unconditionally. “ Growing up Justin was always my favorite friend of my older brother. I enjoyed going to his family’s camp on weekends , watching them skateboard and play video games. He was the only one that was always nice to me a let me hang out an be the annoying little sister.
