“ Mrs. Karen was a Wonderful Caring person who love life and people. Always smiling, sincere and positive; her life exemplified Joie De Vivre! She and Mr. Richard taught me the power of true friendship and love for each other. I think of her daily and the examples she set for us. Her smile and her favorite way to address everyone "Oh Darling" will be a lasting memory. I know the Angels will take care of her as she did for us during her life.

“ I worked with Karen at JP Code. Karen was a good employee. Never late for work. Always helping the contractors. She knew her job well. She would ride with me to the WB office when Katrina damaged the Yenni bldg. always appreciative of what she had and of those who helped her. She lived a good life. She loved her husband very much. As well as her son and his family. She spoke often of them. Karen will always live on in your heart and your memories God Bless. Linda Roy

Karen and I were first cousins & I always looked up to her. She was so sweet & kind. I loved when her family along with her Mom came to visit. Aunt Evia & Dad told stories of their time together. I'm deeply sorry for the family's loss.
