“ Yes Karl you beat all odds of what the Doctors gave you. We always called you the miracle man. But God had other ideas for you , he needed you now and called you home. You made your family strong and with a lot of great memories. You will be missed for sure but will always be remembered. Vera/Bob Blake

“ To my dear sister Dee, my niece Karen and nephews KC, Ronnie and Glenn:

I am so sorry for the loss of Karl. He was a great man who worked hard, loved and provided for his family. Although he was frugal in the early years, he budgeted well and always had money for the more important necessities like food, clothing housing, school tuition and vacations. He raised his children right. Although he was strict at times and never "spared the rod", when needed, you (his children) all grew up to be good and loving, upstanding productive members of society. Karl was a uninique person who I enjoyed knowing, partying with, I have so many memories of him that will be with me until I die. He will surely be missed by many.

Clark Family- Our prayers are with you through this time of sorrow and pray God helps heal your sadness. Karl fought hard and lived longer than what the doctors told him about 6 years ago; but God wanted him to return back home to him. Remember and cherish all the good times and love he gave you, talk about those good memories and this will help the pain will ease. Also remember he is no longer in pain and at peace now. God Bless

On Dad's Birthday, he was coming home from work and Matt Moore and I, were waiting for him at Dogwood Grocery. Once he past, we waited about 4 or 5 minutes, then went straight to the house. I had dressed up myself with fake blood and tore up the shirt for great visual effects. So Matt pretends to help me into the house, and that is when I started my acting career. Threw myself to the ground and grunted like I was shot fifty times. As soon as he was freaked out, Mom, Matt and I said SURPRISE. Funny thing is he forgot it was his birthday.

So Next month was my 16th Birthday party and yes I had a freaking Barney the purple dinosaur Surprise Birthday party. This was like Payback.

Anyways this was one of the funniest times and pictures to share with the rest of everyone.
