“ I'm going to miss one of my best friends for over 25 years. We had many good times in our younger years. We met at Ciolino's Pharmacy working for Douglas and Joe. So many great memories. I know she is with our Father God in Heaven, at Peace now. We will meet again in the future. Love you like a sister. 🙏🌹🙏

Momma, I love you so much and it hurts so bad to loose you in my daily life, but I know that you are together with Daddy again and all of our family members that have passed on before you. I will think about you every day and tell your Great Grandchildren that you didn't get to meet about how loving and caring you are. I will miss you always and never get over this but learn to live with it knowing that you are in a better place that we all hope to be in one day.

I remember Kathleen from John McDonogh High School. We were in Home Room together and attended two classes. Kathleen was always friendly and kind. I pray God will help her family through this grief.
