Michelle gave me a card with your picture in your memroy. I am using it as a bookmark as I read through the Big Book. I remember how proud you were of me when I was in recovery. You gave me a big hug when I told you I had 2 years clean. And I remember how disappointed you were when I slipped. You're my strength, brother, now that I am in recovery again. Big celestial hug coming your way. I miss you. I'll be by to visit you soon at Michelle's.*

“ My brother, Kim. I was unable to make your services yesterday, but you are in my thoughts and prayers daily. You will be my strength through my recent struggles. I spoke to our brother, Tito, for some time yesterday and he will be reaching out to you, Ms. Darlene and Michelle soon. He is heartbroken as well and misses you, big time. He shared some very fond memories of you, Ronnie, Jimmy and Chuckie. He made me promise to express his condolences and how much he loved you. He was unable to attend the celebration of your life since he was at another funeral. You touched alot of people, Kim, that is for sure. I will be visiting you soon. P.S. Make sure Ronnie behaves himself up there. Until we meet again, brother.

Kim,
You were such a special person & brought so much Joy & Happiness to everyone you met. You made my sister the happiest she had ever been, I loved seeing her smile and be "in love" with someone who loved and adored her just as much as she loved them!
GOD has taken you to be with him, though we can not question his motives, one thing we can be sure of is that you were an Angel here on earth! You will always be remembered for your thoughtfulness, kindness, generosity, and loving ways.
Until we meet again, May You Rest in Peace Brother-In-Law!
