“ A beautiful angel, the sister of my brother and myself and loving daughter to my mother and aunt to my children is already missed beyond belief. Lana loved holidays. birthdays and any opportunity to celebrate. She loved creating her own cards and loved to cook, play cards. games, make porcelain dolls, crochet (okay , keepin it real , some of those tri-colored yarns were not so hot) but her workmanship fantastic! She could always make you laugh and you always knew her to get her last nerve popping or smacking gum. She could hear gum a mile away even when she was half deaf.. For years she was just about deaf telling me to speak old so she could hear me. Mom was the same. Both decided to get hearing aids at the same time joining the land of the hearing then gNging up on me telling me to stop screaming at them when I would speak. Great, train me to scream for 25 years then tell me not to talk so loud for the next 25 . Lol ! Miss you Lana Jean, you'll be a better angel than I ! I hope they have Motown so you can dance your heart out! Love and miss you, my heart is full Xx lol from Mom, Bobby, Nancy and Gabby. Give Robbie a kiss for me!
