“ My Condolences to the family , I don't even know where to begin my dear dear friend...we met when we were 15 on Calhoun St. oh my how the time flies . I never ever thought i would be saying Good Bye to you "Larry Norman Franklin" as i would always call out your hole name and we would both laugh..We could talk about any and everything for hours and hours . You were a real friend to me and I will always cherish our memories and our talks . I remember 1 of your metaphors you told me "Never throw my Pearls to the Swan" i will take that metaphor and apply it to my life . Rest in Peace in my friend.

“ There are no words “NO WORDS” that can express how the loss has impacted me and a host of others. You was the best Peanut, a great person. A great host whenever someone entered your home you made everyone feel welcome. The greatest DJ, we have so many good times. If you were called, you were coming..Never a time a request was made of you that you didn't fulfill and if you couldn't you would stop at nothing to find out a answer. Your door was open to everyone. You loved your family unconditionally, so many of the guys in the family looked to you as a man of stature, of dignity and proud to be in your presence. Your heart was pure intentions always good. You will be missed you will definitely be missed. I will hold on to the memories the good times to get through this very difficult time. Love you always fam. Rest peacefully 🕊

“ Rest peacefully Uncle Peanut. Thank you for always being hard on your nieces & nephews. Only the real ones know about the summer book reports, the singing groups in the garage, cutting grass early in the am, and playing pool in the game room. 😭 You played a huge part in my childhood and I will always love you for trying your best to lead me in the right direction but also respecting me to allow me to choose my own path in life. I promise to get the family together as much as possible because I know that’s all you wanted from us.

“ Words cannot express the depth of loss to your family. I can say you are Loved. I will miss our bible study phone calls! You would share what you knew. I watched you grow from a young boy to a grown man and as you grew my love grew for you. I didn't carry you physically but I've always carried you in my heart. I was proud to call you son. Thank you for sharing your life with us. The lessons you poured into your children will give them the strength to live & live well. Rest peacefully.
