“ Mrs. Laura WAS the OLG bookstore. So many Sundays spent in that store chatting with her and whoever came in. She was never short of things to say and share. She knew that bookstore inside out. I remember her also running catechism for the ones she called "my babies," the little ones working toward first communion. She has been quite ill for some time and has been sorely missed. Requiescat in pace, Mrs. Laura, at home with the Lord.

“ *Miss Laura was a well loved pillar of our church. She was a friend to everyone she knew. She was like a Godmother to all the children, especially to the children in her 1st Communion catechism classes. I know she loved my three children and still did when they became adults. She will be missed very much by me and my family. We loved her dearly.
God bless her Soul and send the peace of the Holy Spirit to comfort her family.*
