“ Larry is my sister's stepson. Having know him since I was 13, I can honestly say that he was a kind, sweet, and gentle soul. Being a year younger than him he kiddingly called me "Auntie Becky". I remember those days and today my heart is broken over his passing. RIP Larry I'll see you again.

“ My heart is grieved by Peanut's death! My father, King Thomas, loved him like a son. My mother called him our "Other brother". He was always there to help out whenever my Dad called him. He was truly a kind, hardworking, loving person. He never said anything to hurt someone or caused them pain. When my dad became ill and bed-ridden, Peanut Butter, as my Dad called him, would come and sit and talk to him for hours. If my sister and I needed someone for a few hours to sit with him, Peanut volunteered. If he wanted or needed something, he asked if you had some work he could do to pay for it! He loved to talk about his Mother and family. He was a good man and a loving brother to us "Thomas" girls and our children! Sending our love and condolences.
