LAWRENCE A. MARANTO, SR.

December 9, 1940 – March 20, 2023

Lawrence “Larry” Anthony Maranto, Sr., of Kenner, Louisiana, passed away peacefully on March 20, 2023, at Ochsner Medical Center in New Orleans, Louisiana. Larry was born to Lawrence J. Maranto and Carmen B. Maranto (both deceased) on December 9, 1940, in New Orleans, Louisiana.

He is survived by his loving wife, Jane G. Maranto, of 63 years, and his three children, Lawrence A. Maranto, Jr. (Janet), Laura M. Adams (Glenn, Sr.), and Debra L. Maranto (Chasity). He is also survived by his grandchildren Mallory Motovilov (Alex), Melissa and Marshall Maranto, Glenn Adams Jr., Steven Adams (Lauren Nicole), and Lauren Michelle Adams (Chris), and Alysson Boyd; two great-grandchildren, Tori Adams and Nikolas Motovilov; sisters, Mary Ann Kelly and Gail Becnel, and brother, John Maranto (deceased); a host of nieces and nephews as well as other family and friends.

Larry was a lifetime member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local Union 130. His favorite activity was bowling in a league with his daughter Laura for over 20 years. He also discovered a remarkable talent for painting later in his retirement years, and spent most of his days in his garage painting on 8x10 canvases while listening to classic rock. Passersby often came to the garage and offered to buy some of his works. He even obliged his great-granddaughter Tori’s request and autographed a few paintings that she loved and admired. He enjoyed a lifetime of fishing trips out in his boat, "My Jane," with his son-in-law, grandsons, and best friends. Aside from his hobbies and pastimes, he enjoyed traveling with his wife and children, and he took great pride in and loved spending time caring for the home that he worked so hard to build and provide for his family.

“It’s hard to forget someone who gave you so much to remember”

– Chris Brown

Dear Aunt Jane,

I’m thinking about you all the time. Uncle Larry was a good man. He knew I was interested in airplanes so when he saw a book about airplanes at the Book Fair, he bought it for me. After all these years I still have the book and will keep it always. I also remember how Uncle Larry took a big bowl for his ice cream at the restaurant buffet. He sure liked his ice cream. I’m going to miss him, but I won’t forget the kindness he always showed me. Thank you Uncle Larry.

“What we once enjoyed and deeply loved we can never lose,
For all that we love deeply becomes a part of us.”

— Helen Keller

Dear Aunt Jane,

I know you are going through the toughest time of your life, and I am sorry that you had to lose someone so important and special to you. I can only hope this too shall pass in time. Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead, and loving memories to forever hold in your heart.

I will never forget all the wonderful ways Uncle Larry enriched my life. I still remember the many times I spent with the family, especially the time spent on “My Jane.” I’m glad Uncle Larry invited me to join the family on the boat ride. I also remember deeply his kindness toward my son, Christian, the kindness that will never be forgotten. Uncle Larry was always true to me and my son. And I thank him for the kindness he showed. He left his footprints with glory on the sand of time and Christian and I will remember him forever.

Rest in Peace Uncle Larry.

“Those we love don’t go away, they walk beside us every day... unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed and very dear.” Author unknown

To Jane and the entire Maranto family,

One of the storms we must all face in our lives is the passing of someone dear to our hearts. I am sorry that you are facing this right now and I am deeply saddened. My heartfelt condolences truly go out to you all and I pray that you will be comforted during this most difficult time.

Especially for Jane from your twin sister Jean,

What a trying time it has been for you these past few months, Jane. Your being there for your husband throughout his illness was certainly an act of love. The loss of a spouse is a tragic event and with this loss comes so many layers of heartache. Larry faced a challenge to his life by way of a serious illness, with great courage. Many others in his circumstance would have given up. He fought till the last and finished the race, so God decided to take him home. Yes, you are always going to miss Larry and nothing anyone really says or does will change that. Just remember, he will always be with you and watching over you. So, when you think that you are alone, know that you are not and that your husband is there listening and doing what he can to ease your pain. I’m sure Heaven’s door was open wide to welcome Larry as their newest resident. Cherish his memory, be good to yourself, and take time to heal. Now you must let Larry rest in peace.

GOD BLESS YOU ALL!
