“ Eleanor and Family - We are so sorry for your loss. Lenny was a great guy and we have good memories of him, especially the years we all had at the track. May you take comfort knowing you had him in your life for many, many years and now you have all those memories to hold on to. Even though we can't be there today, please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“Dad thank you so much for all you have done and given to me in my life. I will never forget how many jobs you use to work and how hard you work to provide for our family. Dad I especially remember all the times you coached me in basketball at Girard Playground, those were some fun times. Dad I Love You so much and will Miss You Dearly!!!!
Love Always your son Mitch.

“Paw-Paw, you're my beacon of light in the darkest of times and I treasure all the times we had and memories we shared together. You're a beautiful person and I love you so much. I especially remember our trip to the D-Day Museum and how you comforted me when I needed it. Thank you for everything. You're always in my heart and soul. I love you. Todd.
