“ Lester, Wep, as you were known to friends and family when you were growing up. You were always with us, during my childhood, and cousins to my dad’s family, growing up next door to them. I will miss you, along with your dry wit, and your infectious laughter. You were a straight up kinda guy and I admired the person that you were and know that there’s no one that can fill your shoes. You left us all too soon 💔💔
