

Lewis Eugene Hannah

December 13, 1962 - November 9, 2024

A North Carolina boy who ventured down to Louisiana for work and never left, all because of love. His love for our state, our food, our culture, and especially his beloved wife Lynda and their fur babies. Lewis was a hard working man, meticulous, driven, and always proud of his crew and their accomplishments from job to job. Never one to meet a stranger, he was a beloved character that was bigger than life and became the center of attention with his outgoing personality, attitude, and of course, his keen communication skills.

My heart is broken. Our families were neighbors from the start. They would put us both in the same crib when visiting one another. He was my elementary school sweetheart. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Lynda, we don't know each other, but I thank you for giving him the love he so deserved.

“ Today I say goodbye to my husband, buddy and friend. I truly love u from the bottom of my soul and you will be missed. I will always remember our fun times and all the adventurous memories we shared. Rest in peace because you are at peace and will no longer suffer and pain or heartaches. I will love you forever. Till we meet again in heaven. I'll be counting the days. See you soon. Again I truly love you dearly. And Brandi misses her daddy.

“ Lewis was my buddy! I met him and his wife through another close friend of mine and we immediately became like family. He would call and check on me, especially when we had hurricanes here in Florida. I'll never forget him as he would make me smile and laugh the entire time we were together. My prayers and love to his beautiful wife as God has spoken and it is well with our soul. Rest well my brother. Until we meet again 🙏🙏
