“ Nana, you will forever be missed by all of us! Christmas Eve will not be the same this year (or any future ones) without your smiling face as you sit back and watch all of the kids open their gifts. You will always hold a special place in my heart and I'll miss hearing "Hey babe!" whenever we would see you. We may not have been blood, however you were still my aunt and always will be. A good friend just said to me recently "Blood doesn't make you family" and she is 100% right. We will FOREVER AND ALWAYS be family and you will be missed dearly. Love you forever, Tracey

“ To my friend of over 35 years, I will miss you very much. I got to tell you goodbye minutes before you took your last breath. I will always love you and think of our memories together. Working together at American Mutual and Crawford & Company, craft fairs, painting classes, and for many years, Bonco. You were always good to me, my husband, children and grandchildren. Whenever Bobby cooked on weekends, he would ask me to call you to see if you wanted me to bring food over. You called me on my birthday as sick as you were to tell me Happy Birthday and for that I am grateful. I will miss our private Christmas that we shared every year. I am glad your pain is over and now you are at peace. Until we meet again.
