“ Dad-

*What can I say. I'm so much of you and so much of mom. My favorite memories go back and forth between when we were the 3 amigos and I could talk you into doing anything, even white water rafting or picking me and my friends up at the bar at 2am. You sat for hours waiting for me at dance or popped up at USM and my friends spotted you on campus before you would even call me to say you were there. Or the newer years watching you as Popsy with my kids. Their eyes always twinkled just like mine did when you were around. Rhett became your buddy. Romie your namesake. Reid your baby. I wanted them all to have as much time as they could with you. We knew your time would be short but would make an everlasting impact. I will continue to carry this to them as we will miss you immensely. We all thought we had more time together. I know you weren't ready to go, but in the end accepted what will be. We will forever remember our last outing all together visiting mom at Cypress Grove, Piccadilly, and to the movies to see Inside Out 2. I hope in heaven you have found mom and are greeted by your mom and dad and all the aunts we heard so much about!
I love you dearly- Forever your Daughter-
Sweetlips, Mary Elizabeth*
