“ to Lorayne's wonderful family . Her friends from California are planning a get together to honor our friend. So many of us have known her all our lives. I loved this gal , and have been blessed to have her a part of my life. We will be thinking of you tomorrow and our thoughts and prayers are with you. Donny thanks for all the phone calls, Cathy you have been wonderful . I was so blessed to get to talk to Lorayne the night before she left us. She really felt all the love that was being sent to her. I have known Lorayne most of my life . What a blessing. No one could ask for a better friend. I know I will be with her someday and we will share a glass of Chardonnay ,sitting on a beach and laughing together. Hard to say Good bye!! Love Carolin Guerrero

“ Another periwinkle candle for Lorayne.....I want to extend my deepest sympathy to Donnie and Lorayne's whole family and all of her friends. I met Lorayne in Santa Barbara in 1995 and we have stayed in touch over all these years. We used to go to the beach together every weekend w/our kids and we shared our life's ups and downs. I will always remember her optimism, kindness, loyalty and her beautiful smile. I love you, Lorayne!!!!
