“ Happy birthday paw paw. I wish we were celebrating you today but I find comfort knowing you are doing so with your heavenly family. I will remember so many wonderful times together at the Sunshine Circle in Bedico and you patiently digging many holes u til it was just the right "toilet" for me. Teaching me to play Rummy and taking us for rides on Touro the riding lawnmower.

Calling your house to hear you answer "yello" and spending countless Saturdays with you and grandma playing scrabble, drinking wine and snacking on cheese before going to 4pm mass at St. Rita. Thank you for making the best red beans in the world.

When I needed a place to live you generously took me end and I enjoyed those days together more than you could have known. Looking at old photos, especially the ones from crossing the equator with the navy was at wonderful learning experience. Helping organize your family photos with names & dates as well as your stamp and coin collections. I also remember your great sense of humor like when I told you FB said the next day was "National garden while naked day" and you said "well, we should go drive around the neighborhood tomorrow and check it out." Still makes me giggle.

I was so blessed to have you as my paw paw and will miss you always. <3 Christine
