“ Ms. Louise's birthday was last Wednesday. We never missed sending each other a birthday card.I didn't get one in December while she was ill and then last week I caught myself making a note to buy one for her before I realized my mistake. She was a good mother-in-law to me during my time in the Cruice family and remained a true friend in later circumstances. I always admired her commitment to family and her love for each person. Hopefully her life will help us all remember that love, loyalty and acceptance are the true foundations we should build our lives upon.

*Dear Cruice Family,
I sincerely apologize for almost a year's delay in sending heartfelt condolences on Louise. Just came across a memory card and didn't notice the web site until just now. Louise and I worked closely and i enjoyed her great humor and firey spirit. We had plenty of fun and good humor while with the 926th Fighter Wing. Think of her often and so very, very, sad she has passed. God's blessings on all who love and miss her.*

“ Dear Cruice Family,

Very sad to hear about Louise. We were friends at the 926th for many years. Her job in HR helped me greatly over the years. We also shared lots of laughs and after our retirement, we stayed in some touch via Email. Not hearing from her in recent months had me concerned greatly. May God grant you all peace in knowing Louise shares heaven with those who have gone before her. Husband and other family members. I will pray for the repose of her soul. God Bless.
