“ Lucas was truly one of a kind. He gave it his all in everything he did, hunting, fishing, work and play. It was my pleasure to have him as my friend as I am sure all his friends would say. He had a great sense of humor and loved a good joke or prank. He was the kind of guy that when you went to his house you were made to feel like family. We had a great time when he took me fishing on the bayou and when he and Tall Boy came to fish with me on Sam Rayburn there was never a dull moment, he was fun to be around and will be greatly missed. My heart goes out to Cindy and all the family, keeping you in my thought and prayers.

“ Lucas was not only a true coworker but also a great friend. I enjoyed his passion for doing it right and with humor whether it was at work, at home or just having fun. Lucas left his mark on all who took the time to know him. Lucas will be missed but never forgotten.

“ Lucas gave myself and our family so many memories. Such as his first time ever sledding on actual snow with our daughter Tiffany in Nebraska. Of course the many hunting trips he and I did to prepare for the famous gumbo. The most memorable hunting trip down at Atchison where the game warden came and I was Ed's brother in law!! Taking in Mardi Gras with Lucas, Cindy and their kids and Julie and I and our kids. Nico will never forget the ladders at the parades. Cindy, Garrett and Brett our prayers and thoughts are with you.
