“ Lynn

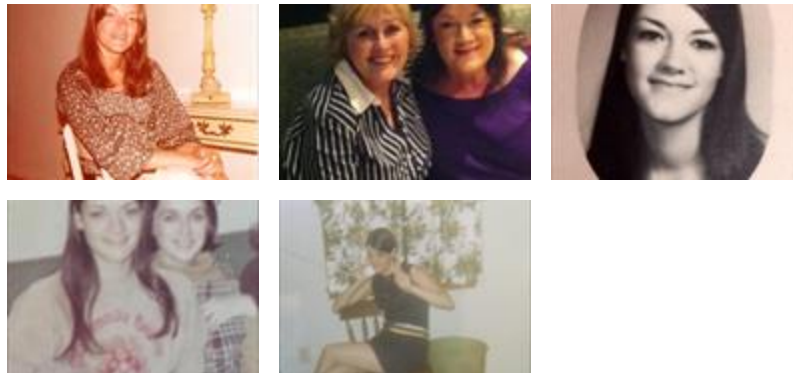

I wish I had had the chance to tell you how much I love you. I always felt so close to you. Though I hadn't seen you in a while, I still hear you laughing - you had a great laugh and I will keep it with me. Until we meet again...

*With love,

“ Lynn, you know you were my best and dearest friend.... You fixed me up on a date with your friend named Lou, July, 1967 and because of you, I now have my beautiful son and daughter.... I'll never forget our separation destination vacation to Cancun with Alice, compliments of my brother Mark and sister in law Sheryl, or our spur of the moments to Fort Walton just to chill and experience room service. Stories we had together couldn't be made up. Skipping school to the Zoo or Plum St snowballs was a way of life....The experiences we had together can never be duplicated. I often speak of the time I took you to the Santana concert and we got so stoned because of the people around us smoking pot. The munchies were so bad, I spent about $50 on snacks. The memories are too many to list. A part of me left with you my friend.... Don't worry, I will check in on your beautiful girls. This was a promise we made to each other and I intend to keep it.

May you rest in peace with all those family member who greeted you in heaven on March 12th. This will be a date I'll never forget. My heart is truly broken and my grief will last the rest of my life.. 🥺💔
