“ So sorry for your loss Lloyd. In the earlier years when the family gathered often we would all know each other by name. We would greet with hugs and kisses and stories to make us laugh and have fun. Madeline was always a pleasant loving cousin. It is so sad the family is not as close as when the aunts and uncles were alive. Now Madeline joins them for that big card game in heaven. Prayers for her family.

Oh Dear sweet Mimi, from the second I came into this family you took me in as a granddaughter. I lost both my grandmothers at a young age. You definitely filled the void. I loved showing up at your house and seeing you come to the door with such a beautiful smile on your face and those famous gowns you loved to wear. You always feed me and if I stayed long enough you feed me again lol. I loved hearing your stories over and over again each time I visited and looking at the same photos also. I loved spending time with you. I will truly miss you so much. Thanks for being a great Mimi to Jonathan (your#1) lol and for being a great Mimi to me also. Life with never be the same without you here. Tell Grandpa Lloyd we said hello and if you see my grandparents tell them I love and miss them also. I love you
