“ I stumbled across this for a long list of reasons. Madelyn was the House Mother of the Bourbon Pub/Parade. She was sweet, thick on the compliments, because she really thought me and my young peers were fabulous. That face!

“ Maddie was such a good friend, who loved and experienced life to it's fullest. She always found something new for us to do, like the Longest Yard Sale (we went from Ft. Payne, Al to Chatanooga, TN) what fun, or a free concert, a painting class. She would always cut out an article in the paper and give it to you because she knew it was something you would be interested in, So glad you got to ride in Muse - and you did it first class and had a ball, again you enjoyed everything you did. So glad you got to come to the Pow Wow this year. Maddie, we'll miss you so much.
