“ On behalf of the East Jefferson Italian American Society, I extend our deepest condolences to the Galioto, Ceravolo, and Rosson families. Mae was an active member of our Society for decades. She attended our meetings and always contributed. Mae especially enjoyed participating in the Kenner Italian Heritage Festival. Eric was always on hand to help as well. We will not only miss her as a member but a friend. Her dedication to our heritage and community did not and will not go unnoticed or appreciated. Riposa in Pace Mae.

“ Aunt Mae was a special lady...seeing all of her awards...she never boasted about them; a person would have never known the influence she had in the nursing world! Aunt Mae and I got closer when I went to nursing school....we had alot to talk about! I had alot of questions! Aunt Mae was a great cook, I especially loved her spaghetti! You are at peace Aunt Mae, no more suffering and by faith I look forward to seeing you again! God is good all the time! Our love and prayers to my cousins Wyatt and Leslie, the Grandkids and rest of the family:) Love, Danette & Tim
