

Manuel Alejandro Flores

September 9, 1991 - November 2, 2025

Manny “Tito” lived a joyous life, full of family, friends, and loved ones.

He is survived by his loving parents, Anna and Jose Flores; younger brother Luis; grandmother Mamá Delmy; and cherished dog Maya; cousins Bella, Alessandra, Andrea Michelle, Juanky, Fabi, Vivian, Andrea Isabel.

He also leaves behind close aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

His presence, smile, laughter, and dance moves lit up every room he entered. He was always happy, full of life, and the heart of every celebration. You could find him every weekend at the local festival.

His memory will forever remain in our hearts and though he was taken too soon, his love and happiness will continue to live on through everyone who had the pleasure of meeting him.

Who Dat and Geaux Tigers!

Manny “Tito” disfrutó su vida, rodeado de familia, amigos y todos los que lo amaban.

Sus padres Anna Flores y Jose Flores, su hermano Luis, su abuela Mamá Delmy, su perrita Maya, primos Bella, Alessandra, Andrea Michelle, Juanky, Fabiola, Vivían y Andrea Isabel.

Manny “Tito” vivió una vida plena de alegría, rodeado de familia, amigos y seres queridos.

Le sobreviven sus amados padres, Anna y José Flores; su hermano Luis; su abuela Mamá Delmy; su querida perrita Maya; y sus primos Bella, Alessandra, Andrea Michelle, Juanky, Fabi, Vivian y Andrea Isabel.

También deja atrás a tías, tíos, primos y amigos muy queridos.

Su presencia, su sonrisa, su risa y sus pasos de baile iluminaban cada lugar al que entraba. Siempre estaba feliz, lleno de vida y era el alma de cada celebración. Se le podía encontrar todos los fines de semana en los festivales.

Su recuerdo permanecerá para siempre en nuestros corazones y, aunque se fue demasiado pronto, su amor y alegría seguirán vivos en todos los que tuvieron el placer de conocerlo.

“ Celebrate life.

A text written with all the love I feel—and will keep feeling—for my cousin Manuel Alejandro. ☐🕊️🙏🌟

As I walked through the New Orleans airport, heading home after a weekend I wish had only been a dream we could wake up from, a sign stopped me. It said: “...where the world comes to celebrate.” And I thought, somehow, that message was meant for me.

Manny [Tito] left us on All Souls’ Day. As the priest said that sunny Sunday afternoon—perfect, with birds singing in the same patio where he loved to spend time—it wasn’t a coincidence. He left on the very day dedicated to those who continue to accompany us from another place.

And I’m certain it couldn’t have been any other way. Because for someone so special, his departure couldn’t be ordinary either. My cousin was a mobilizer of people and affection. He celebrated his life every second of that final week surrounded by family and friends, until his heart decided to rest. There were feasts, a street full of cars, movies, games... and Bad Bunny playing in the background, as it should be.

He left surrounded by immense, overflowing love—the kind of love I had never witnessed before. A love that surely lightened his journey. Because he never held anything back—not a single “I love you,” not a hug, not a smile. He gave them all, and gave them to all of us—without hesitation, without holding back, even when his body was already tired.

There’s so much more I could say, but I’ll just sum it up like this: you’ll always be close to us, and your example will live on. You’ll be present in everything we do, and in every Saints or LSU jersey we wear in your honor. 💛💜 Geaux Tigers!

Love you and miss you, now and forever. 🥹

“ To know I can't stand beside you Saturday and say goodbye hurts in a way I can't put into words. You were full of life, love, and happiness, the kind of friend who made every room brighter just by being in it.

Thank you for the laughter and the way you loved us. You were a gift to everyone who knew you, and the world feels dimmer without you in it.

You will be missed beyond measure and loved forever. Until we meet again, my dear friend.
