“ *You were a sweet and kind fragile soul, never speaking ill of anyone. We just never know what God's plan is for us or why. Some people seem to scale life's walls with barely any effort that don't deserve to; and Others have their trials here on earth daily, that others cannot understand unless traded places. You have finally scaled your wall seemingly ambiguously. But now you are at Peace with the Lord! *May the Light to the Truth be Known. May the Angels protect and guide your children.*

Donations will be made to the American HEART Association.
