“ I knew Joe both on a tennis court and in a law court. In tennis, he was always fun to be with and a fountain of funny stories. In court, he was a knowledgeable and fair judge. I shall remember him well.

“ My precious Uncle Joe, the wise man I could always call when I felt the world was crumbling. He gave me comfort numerous times in my life. He married so many of my family and friends in he and Aunt Sicoo's living room and many other places. He was a tremendous man of faith but could have a serious conversation about the world we live in and tell a fantastic joke! He and his family have always been a very large part of my life and many other of my family members. He will be missed and always loved.
