“ My aunt marcy was a very special lady who loved her family more than anything, she told the funniest stories, she was always well Informed. I loved visiting her amd did so fairly often, she was the last person my wife Chao and I visited before we moved out of state, Emily was there and when Chao sneezed, she literally ran to get her a kleenex. My aunt was an amazing woman, she loved me, as I did her. I'll miss her forever. Daniel Henderson
