“ To the family of Mrs. Veronica. My name is Debbie Weems, I am Jennifer Stegemeyer's Aunt who lives out of town. Each time I was at the nursing home to visit my mother, Rose, I also got to visit with Veronica. She quickly became a friend to my mother, and we all thought she was a bright light of sunshine and always had fun stories to share and make us all smile. She was a lot of fun and we will miss her dearly. She had a wonderful spirit, and so very sorry to hear of her passing. My prayers are with her and your family. May your fond memories of Veronica get you through this difficult time.

“ I love my Aunt Roni!! She nicknamed me Missy Prissy then Missiemoe, which stuck & I still use as email & sign ons!!! She was so present in our school days and most memorably highschool where she rescued me (and a group of girls, Jane Gautreaux included) from a serious act of stealing a cake from the teachers lounge & eating it !!! I'm know everyone will miss Aunt Roni!! May she Rest In Peace & have a "cold beer" with Minna (Minew)!!! Love to you all! 🥺🥺

“ Here we go again, telling another love one good bye, until we meet again ,in heaven! Aunt Ronnie, definitely a server,God’s gift to man kind.She helped my mother supply and support us 8 kids.She clothed us ,brought food, did all she could, to see that we had, what we needed.The last time I got to see her was at Uncle Rip’s funeral, and she looked so good,I didn’t recognize her! My prayers go out to her children and grand kids.
