“ I'm still in shock from my dear friend Milly's passing. I find it overwhelming to realize she is no longer with us. Our friendship was one of over 30 plus years and not one time did I ever hear an angry or hurtful word from her. She was the essence of what I think God wants us to be: kind, thoughtful, trustworthy, and always ready to give a helping hand and love - much love to her family, friends and her faith.

We have truly been blessed to have had Milly among us. She made the world a better place.

I will always love you, Milly, and thank you for the love, laughter and friendship you gave to my family and me.

*My sincerest condolences go to your beloved family.
We all will miss you so very much.*

“ So saddened to hear about Millie. She fought a good fight for so many years and brought so much sunshine into the lives of her classmates when she attended the luncheons. She was a symbol of strength and courage to us all. We will miss her. Condolences and prayers to her family.
