He was preceded in death by his father, Roberto Villacorta. Mariano’s parents were both from Guatemala, a heritage he carried with pride.

“ Mariano Villacorta helped me transition from being a stay-at-home mother to an insurance broker. He gave me the best career for my family and me because he believed in me. He will always be my brother, my friend, and my boss. He never gave up and remained incredibly strong until the very end. Keep us all optimistic and focused on the future at all times. You are another angel keeping watch over us; you are in a better place, my friend. We really missed you and loved you. Priscilla.
