“ Mark was incredibly passionate. About life (no matter how small), music, good food, learning every new thing, his family and his friends. Mark could make you feel like you were the only person in the world and whatever you happened to be doing together was the only thing that mattered. We would listen to entire albums in 1 sitting, spend hours deciphering poetry, have deep (and shallow) conversation with much laughter and dance until I couldn't stand any longer.... "One more song, Angie"

My dear friend,

“ Mark brought so much laughter and fun to our family. He will be missed tremendously. He had an amazing appreciation for art, music and culture. Mark was good, kind, generous and loving. He was loved by everyone. He could make you belly laugh without even trying. My kids and I loved him deeply. Please pray for our family and friends. There are countless comforting memories because spending time with Mark was the best part of being a family.

“ Mark was our double nephew (2 brothers married two 2 sisters) and living only a few houses away for many years we have many good memories of Mark that will always be with us. We fished together, camped together, traveled together and remember Marks inquisitive nature. Mark loved to learn and loved to laugh and always wanted to know more about a subject. He loved spanish music and loved to dance. He was my wifes first english practice partner and she returned the favor by volunteering be the first to ride in his car when he was a beginner driver. He lived with us for awhile and we fished the piers and bays of Mississippi. We wish we never had to bid our loved ones goodbye but although they leave our sight they never leave our heart.

God looked around his garden and found an empty space Then he looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face He put his arms arms around you and lifted you to rest It breaks our hearts to lose you but God knows what is best We love you and will miss you Mark Rest in Peace

“ Rest In Peace to my cousin Mark. He was my big cousin that used to take me on fishing trips to grand isle when I was young in his old Toyota. Mark introduced me to the music of New Orleans and about some of the musicians and in turn, later I was able to turn him on to some others as well. Mark would always become extremely excited when he would learn of something new to him and always dig for more information as he always wanted to know everything. We even played a nerdy business simulation game for a while a long time ago that in retrospect must have been the most boring game I've ever engaged in but playing with my sister and mark together would always make for an all night laughing event. We will always miss him and my heart goes out to all of my family that will also.

Mark will live on in my heart as my "other" brother Mark. We all have so many great memories of our Ormond years because growing up in such a close community was a gift I treasure. Mark was rooted of many of our laughs and good times. You are loved and forever Mark ❤️ ~Lori McKeown Cox.
