“ My entire life is full of favorite memories of Mary. She has always been more than an aunt to me. She has been a mother, sister and friend. She was always there for me and treated me like one of her own kids. As a child and as an adult, she gave so much of herself unselfishly to me, taught me, protected and cared about me. She always knew if something was bothering me and would give me that understanding grin and tell me I was just like her and just talking to her made me feel like everything would be ok. We could make each other laugh so easily and I don't ever remember a day that either of us got mad at the other. She loved sales, and in her later years, she would spread out her newspapers and circle all the sale items she wanted. She didn't even need that particular food, but she had to have it because it was on sale. I would have to go to three different stores to save 10 cents a pound! She had a thing for leaves on the patio, she hated them. I knew that if I swept her patio every time I came over, she was happy for the day and the world was alright again! I know that she is happy in heaven now receiving her rewards for an unselfish life. A lifetime was not long enough to have her with me and I will always miss her and will rejoice the day I can see her again.
